

The Earth, viewed from space. Photo: By Vimal S on Unsplash.

Wanstead Quakers Climate & Ecological Emergency Group 5th Sunday Talk

Paul Hodgkin

How might Quakerism be changing as the Earth crises intensify?

Sunday 29th November 12noon – 1.15pm
Followed by a shared lunch

Come along to hear Paul expand on his ideas about how we, as Quakers, can move from 'Answering that of God in Everyone' to 'Answering that of God in Everything' shifting from the 'I' to 'we' and making cooperation and collaboration the focus.

Paul is from Bury St Edmonds Meeting & has written a number of articles for The Friend.

Wanstead Quaker Meeting House
Bush Road London E11 3AU

- Wanstead Meeting House is wheelchair accessible

Travel:

- By tube - Leytonstone station Central Line & 12 min walk
- By train Leytonstone High Rd station Suffragette Line & 21 min walk or 257/W13
- By bus to the Green Man Roundabout 66, 257, W12, W13, W19 & 6 min walk
- Parking available for bicycles (front & back right hand side) & cars (front)
- What three words speech.them.deeply